Red Spies Are in the CIA, State Department: Defector

CPYRGHT

NEW YORK (AP) — The New York Journal-American reported Monday that a defector from the Soviet secret police has informed U.S. officials Moscow has placed active "cells" in the Central Intelligence Agency and the State Department.

The newspaper said the defector is Michal Góleniewski, 41, a Polish-born agent. It said he was a high-ranking operative in Russia's KGB until his defection in 1961—and is sure the "cells" still are operating in the two high government agencies in Washington and overseas.

The Journal-American account said of the defector:

"He has named names. He has provided Washington with details of what looms as a greater scandal than the famous Alger Hiss case."

THE STORY listed these disclosures said to have been made by Góleniewski:

—"Approximately $1.2-million of CIA funds in Vienna recently was passed secretly along to the Communists—one-third to KGB (the Soviet secret police), one-third to the Italian Communist party and one-third to the American Communist party.

—"Three American scientists with access to defense secrets are working for the KGB. They have ties to others in the same category whose identities are unknown to him. But he has clues to a number of them.

—"KGB has been able to infiltrate all American embassies in important cities abroad.
